

I am very much against this petition and feel Morse code should remain a requirement for establishing an Ameteur Radio License